

GROUP 4

ColCT

This is a report for group 4

The meteorological observers are usually required to observe changes in weather on a certain periodic time (e.g. half an hour for a busy airport and an hour for a normal airport), then report the changes to airplane controller. The problem this is done manually, the observer fills a form (called form 444) and takes it to the airplane controller.